It is not possible to conclude a contract without providing the personal data necessary for the performance of the contract and the fulfilment of legal obligations. You have right to object to the processing of personal data for the purposes of legitimate interests. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Please be informed that the withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Manner and means of processing

The Controller and the processor processing personal data on behalf of the Controller process your personal data by manual means (such as by placing a contract in paper form in the relevant file) and by automated means (by means of ICT, such as a personal computer using Microsoft Office 365 applications, as well as the Controller’s or processor’s systems).

In processing your personal data by automated means, the Controller does not apply automated decision-making, including profiling, that might affect your rights.

Processor

The Controller processes your personal data through its employees who need access to the personal data in order to perform their duties and who are obliged to maintain confidentiality of all facts and information of which they become aware in the course of their employment.

In addition, the processor’s employees have access to your personal data, only to the extent necessary to carry out their work for the Controller. We enter into a written Data Processing Agreement with all our processors, establishing appropriate safeguards for the security of your personal data.

Categories of processors	Activities
Recruitment agencies	Ensuring the recruitment and selection of suitable job applicants
Providers of IT services and software providers	Provision of IT services and software including service support, system administration, development and maintenance as well as analysing security risks
Providers of legal services and counselling	Provision of legal services and counselling

Recipients of personal data

The Controller may, in certain circumstances, transfer your personal data to recipients (other controller, processor) and third parties.

Recipients to whom personal data is routinely transferred, in particular:

- Tax Office
- Bailiff offices
- Courts
- Police of the Czech Republic

However, where public authorities require personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry, they are not considered to be recipients but third parties.

Transfer of personal data to third countries

The Controller and the processors acting on the Controller's behalf process your personal data primarily in the Czech Republic or in the European Union (EU), where unified data protection is guaranteed in each member state. Quite exceptionally, your personal data may be processed outside the EU, for example, in a computer system whose servers are located outside the EU. In that case, we would select a contractual partner that will meet the conditions for secure data transfer in accordance with the applicable legislation. We will inform you in an appropriate manner about the specific measures and procedures, about to whom and to which countries your personal data is disclosed/transferred, under which conditions, how your data is protected, and about the risks involved.

Legislation

When processing your personal data, we comply with the applicable legislation, including, in particular:

- Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation)
